

DREAMCONTROL

It just keeps repeating itself
Dreams are out of control Something always goes wrong Heard a song just the other day and I guess what it meant to say is Maybe we will get it done if we just concentrate

Refrain:

And you and me then we will fly or we will run and the world flashes by You are with me, you don't want to leave and I get the real you finally

The bill has been paid, the door has been locked.
I dressed up all tidy and got done alot.
I ate something healthy made up for time lost.
You would be proud of me,
I you were interested in me.

Refrain:

And you and me then we will fly
over burnt wasteland passing by underneath
I hold you close, you hold my hand
I can see you within a dream where will you go?
