

SIGNAL TRACKED

Turn your head around, look at me baby,
Let me feel your eyes on me.
Like I had been waiting, tracking down your signal discovery no option on my mind

Refrain:

Are you close, are you near me Meet me at the worlds loneliest place like all those lights in a dark sky be with me, as long as we have fun forevermore

There are seven billion (of us) baby you are so hard to find Could I help you discover me
We'll have fire and flashes, lightspeed ahead of us Just give me a sign, where it's to be

Bridge:

Well honey I thought I found you before you felt so good, felt so right.
shipwrecked on the giant ocean, far from the shore drifted apart and out of sight
